Introduction

This policy regulates effective, clear and fast handling of complaints and disputes Siris Markets Ltd, hereinafter referred to as ‘the Company’ or ‘we’, in relation to the performance and procedures of the Company.

The Company maintains Records of Complaints and a structured dispute resolution process. The Company must develop and put into practice an independent and objective complaints and dispute resolution system that includes:

A written Policy (made available on the Company’s official website) that sets out how complaints and disputes will be handled, including:

How to lodge a complaint or dispute regarding the company’s actions or decisions;

Time frames for decisions regarding complaints;

Information to be provided to complainants;

Options available when a complaint or dispute is not resolved

Effective communication of the company's Complaint Handling and Dispute Resolution Policy to clients,

A complaints register that records details of complaints and disputes and their progress;

Referral arrangements to external dispute resolution resources for disputes that cannot be resolved through the internal resources of the company.

Definitions

Complaint:

Complaints are defined as specific requests or claims related to the services or products of the Company, which objects the performance or expresses negligence of the Company and lodges a relevant, specific and clear demand.

Asking an opinion or position about any specific case or requesting general information about the operation and services of the Company shall not constitute a complaint.

Complainant:

The Complainant could be a natural or legal person, a company without legal entity or other organization that requires services of the Company or the addressee of information or offer related to the service.

When the complaint is submitted by a representative or other duly authorized person, the Company will investigate the legal basis of the submission, which must be presented by the Complainant in a format required by law. If no authorization is available, the Company will approach the Complainant directly in order to accelerate the procedure.

Dispute:

Means an unresolved complaint - In other words, it is a matter that has been dealt with as a complaint under this Policy, but where the complainant is still not satisfied with the outcome.

Dispute Resolution:

Dispute resolution refers to the processes by which disputes are brought to an end. This can occur through:

A negotiated outcome, where the parties concerned sort out things themselves;

A mediated outcome, where the parties use the services of an independent mediator to help them arrive at their own agreement; or

An arbitrated or adjudicated outcome, where an independent arbitrator or court determines how the dispute is to be resolved and makes a binding decision or order to this effect

Submitting a Complaint

The Complainant, if possible, should report the event or the date of the occasion subject of the complaint to the Company as soon as possible. This is necessary to enable the Company to investigate the complaint as efficiently as possible.

The following opportunities are available for submitting a complaint to our Company:

by mail,

by e-mail, or
